TENEMENT HOUSE FIRE

Several Lives Lost in an Early Morning Blaze in New York.

Daring Escapes Were Made By a Number of the Terrified Inmates — It Is Thought More Bodies Are in the Rubus.

New York, Oct. 17.—Several lives were lost in a fire early Wednesday morning in the three-story and attic double frame tenement on Hester street.

The dead: Mrs. Fass, Samuel Fass, 13 years old; Lena Fass, 9 years old; Morris Fass, 2 years old; woman believed to be Mrs. Lewis, mother of Mrs. Fass.

Missing: Mrs. Horowitz, Mandel Straus.

Injured: Mary Martin, back severely burned.

Six families lived in the building, three on each side. Janitor Nathan Gatz discovered the fire in the hallway. He ran through the building shouting to the tenants. Private Watchman Sam Lazarus, stationed on the block, heard him, and sent in an alarm. Several policemen heard him and ran to the place. They arrived with the firemen but already the place was in flames. It burned like a strawstack. Charles Fass, a butcher, who with his family lived on the second floor, heard the janitor yelling, and picking up his 4-year-old child, Josephine, ran out and down the rickety old fire escape. He made frantic efforts to get back for his wife and other children but the fire was already shooting from the windows and he was cut off. His wife ran to the window and threw out Isaac, the 5-year-old boy. A policeman caught the lad and he was unhurt.

All the rest of the Fass household were burned to death.

Henry Bernhaltz, who lived in the rear, got his family out.

Mary Martin and Mary Murray lived in the attic. They escaped but Mary Martin was severely burned.

Mrs. Lewis, in trying to escape, got to the second floor fire escape where her body was found later by the firemen.

The fire marshal has been notified by the police to investigate how the fire began as it is believed the fire was of an incendiary. The firemen were searching the ruins at 3:30 o'clock. They said there was little prospect of recovering more bodies for several hours until the ruins cooled.

NOTORIOUS FORT CHABROT.

It Was Raided to Find Proof of the Existence of the So-Called Grand Occident of France.

Paris, Oct. 17.—The police Tuesday unexpectedly raided the notorious "Fort Chabrot" in Paris and also the residence of the mother of its defender, M. Jules Guerin. A number of papers were seized in both places.

The object of the raid is said to have been to find proof of the existence of the so-called "Grand Occident" of France, an anti-republican league, whose headquarters during the Dreyfus agitation was at Fort Chabrot.

The nationalist organs ask if the government wishes to "work up another high court conspiracy trial."

EX-EMPRESS FREDERICK.

She Was Secretly Married to Baron Seckendorff, in England, Last April—Her Malady.

Berlin, Oct. 17.—The report that Dowager Empress Frederick was married last April to Baron Seckendorff, who was hofmeister under Emperor Frederick, although widely circulated abroad, had always been strenuously denied here until the present crisis in her disease. Now, however, it is being circulated and accepted with a number of fresh details such as that the marriage occurred in England.

It is said that the principal malady of the dowager empress is cancer of the kidneys. According to the latest bulletin she is somewhat better but a fatal result is generally expected by the public.

For Texas Storm Sufferers.

New York, Oct. 17.—The attendance at the bazaar being held at the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of the sufferers in the recent Galveston hurricane was very large Tuesday night. Secretary Mar estimates that the receipts so far will amount to between $20,000 and $30,000. The bazaar will be closed Wednesday evening in a snuffing way by Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) and Gov. Sayers of Texas.

FIRE IN DETROIT.

Two Men Killed and Eight Persons More or Less Injured—Property Loss $20,000.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 17.—As a result of a fire which started soon after 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, in the building at No. 15 Jefferson avenue, occupied by the Wittich Bros. Co., Limited, manufacturers of elk skin shoes, two men are dead and eight persons more or less severely injured. The fire started in the basement which was used as a store room for boxes and lumber. The origin remains a mystery.

The flames spread so rapidly that none of the employees who were on the second and third floors were able to escape by the stairway. The girls employed in the building were on the third floor and when the cry of fire was raised they became panic-stricken and rushed for the windows where a general fight followed in the efforts to get out. The firemen took several girls from the third story front windows while others escaped from the rear by means of fire escapes. Ernest Lizette, a laborer, was smothered to death on the third floor.

COURT OF ARBITRATION.

The American Initiative Will Result in General Action By the Other Powers Interested.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The action taken by the United States in designating ex-President Harrison and ex-Senator Gray as members of The Hague court of arbitration is attracting the attention of foreign governments, which are making inquiries through their representatives here as to the steps taken by this country, the indications being that the American initiative will result in general action by the other powers interested. As far as can be learned, none of the foreign governments has yet named its members of the tribunal. It is understood, however, that M. Maertens, the distinguished Russian publicist, is likely to succeed M. Struve as Russian minister to The Hague, and at the same time be designated as one of the Russian members of the arbitration court.

CAPTURED BY FILIPINOS.

While Repairing Telegraph Wires Near San Jose 13 American Soldiers Were Nabbed.

Manila, Oct. 17.—The Filipino insurgents are again displaying activity. Two hundred of them attacked 20 men of the 24th infantry near San Jose, Nuevo Ecija province, Luzon, on the 10th, and of the American detachment but seven reached San Jose. It is probable that the remainder were captured. The Americans were repairing telegraph wires.

A report comes from Takloban, Leyte island, of the killing of three American soldiers of the 43d infantry, who were surprised by the enemy. The bodies of the dead were badly mutilated when a rescuing party arrived upon the scene.

MINERS VICTORIOUS.

The Coal Operators Accede to All Demands Made by Them.

Nothing Now Remains But for the Men to Return to Work as Soon as Notices Are Posted By the Colliery Managers.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—The great strike of the anthracite mine workers of Pennsylvania which began September 17, practically ended Wednesday when the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Co. and the Lehigh Valley Coal Co. agreed to abolish the sliding scale in their respective regions and to grant an advance in wages of ten per cent. net, the advance to remain in operation until April 1, 1901, or thereafter. This action meets the demands of the Scranton miners' convention. The decision was arrived at after a conference between representatives of the individual coal operators and the large coal carrying companies. The conference began Tuesday.

Wednesday's action was the culmination of the recent meeting of the individual operators at Scranton following the mine workers' convention in the same city. Nearly all the collieries in the coal region had previously to the mine workers' convention posted notices granting an advance of ten per cent. The mine workers in considering this demanded that the sliding scale in the Lehigh and Schuylkill districts be abolished, the increase to be guaranteed until April 1, 1901, and all other differences to be submitted to arbitration. The individual operators agreed to everything and the appointment of a committee to induce the Reading and Lehigh Cos. to abolish the sliding scale and make the wage increase permanent followed.

It is conceded that the result of Wednesday's conference is a complete victory for the men. All the demands of their convention are acceded to and as one of the individual operators put it after the conference, the operators go a little further in agreeing to maintain the wage advance after April 1. This same operator, who requested that his name be not used said, in speaking of the conference:

"It's all up to the miners now. We have agreed to everything, and nothing remains but for them to return to work as soon as the notices are posted by the colliery managers. These notices will be practically similar to the Reading Co.'s notice, the phraseology only being changed."

"I look for a resumption of operations by Monday at the latest. The conference was entirely harmonious and every phase of the strike situation was gone over."

Just how soon the official order notifying the men that the strike is ended and to return to work will be issued by President Mitchell can only be conjectured. It is believed here that no order to return will be issued until a notice similar to or in line with that of the Reading and Lehigh Cos. is posted at all the mines.

PITTSBURGH WON.

Defeated Brooklyn in the Third of the Series of Games for the World's Championship.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 18.—Pittsburgh played ball in old time form and did not leave Brooklyn a leg to stand on. Philippi did excellent work in the box and was given excellent support, the only error or misplay being Williams' low throw to first base in the ninth. Only one Brooklynite reached third and he was killed at the home plate by a brilliant play of O'Brien on Dahlen's bunt. In no inning did Brooklyn make more than one hit and their errors were responsible for two runs. One of the features was Tommy Leach's good work. He reached first every time he came to bat, made three hits, scored four times, batted in another run and made three nice catches in left field. Attendance 1,800. Score, Pittsburgh 10, Brooklyn 0. Batteries—Philippi and Zimmer; Howell and McGuire. Umpires—Hurst and Swartwood.

The games played on Monday and Tuesday were won by Brooklyn.

SCHOONER RUN DOWN.

The John A. Curtis Struck By an Unknown Ocean Tug and Sank —The Crew Safe.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 18.—The schooner John A. Curtis, of Baltimore, Capt. E. W. Travers, was run down and sunk in Hampton Roads at an early hour Wednesday morning by an unknown ocean tug. Capt. Travers was struck by flying timber, the blow rendering him unconscious. The tug, which had her after pilot house carried away, is reported to have steamed off after the accident. Capt. Travers and his crew reached Norfolk Wednesday in a yawl boat.

Archbishop Ireland Arrives.

New York, Oct. 18.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, arrived on the Majestic Wednesday evening from a long trip abroad. The archbishop refused to be interviewed.

PRINCE HOHENLOHE.

The German Chancellor Tendered Resignation and It Was Accepted By the Emperor.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—The Kolnische Zeitung asserts that Prince Hohenlohe has tendered his resignation as imperial chancellor and that it has been accepted.

According to the same authority Emperor William has designated as the retiring chancellor's successor Count Von Buelow, minister of foreign affairs.

Although rumors had been current for several days that Prince Hohenlohe intended to retire, little credence was given to any of them, since such reports had returned periodically for several years past.

The fact is that neither the foreign officers nor any other government department in Berlin knew until Wednesday evening of Prince Hohenlohe's retirement, and Emperor William's approval of it.

The reason which induced the prince to insist upon retiring were, in the main, his rapidly growing infirmities and his distinct disapproval of the emperor's personal policy in China. To his intimates, Prince Hohenlohe, during the last three months, has repeatedly expressed strong criticisms upon what he has called the emperor's "sentimental and impulsive interference in the troubles in China."

FILIPINOS SURPRISED.

Company of the 40th Infantry Captures Gen. Alvarez, With His Staff and 25 Men.

Manila, Oct. 18.—Under cover of a stormy night Capt. Elliot, of the 40th infantry, surprised the rebel headquarters near Oroquieta, island of Mindanao, and captured without fighting Gen Alvarez, with his staff and 25 soldiers.

The capture is important and will tend to pacify the district. Alvarez had been for a long time provoking hostilities in Mindanao. It was he who effected the disastrous attack on Oroquieta some time ago and he was preparing another when captured.

Detachments of the 26th and 18th regiments engaged the rebels near Tubuagan, in southern Panay, routing them, killing 20 and wounding many.

BOARD OF INQUIRY.

The Collision of the Torpedo Boats Dahlgren and Craven Ordered Investigated.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 18.—A board of inquiry has been ordered to investigate the collision of the United States torpedo boats Dahlgren and Craven off Castle Hill Tuesday night. The latter was only slightly damaged, but the Dahlgren plunged into the stern of the Craven, ripping away everything for ten feet. The Dahlgren backed away, and in a second attempt to reach the slip was again blown out of her course and a second time rammed the Craven, this time shifting her starboard engine. The Craven had previously struck the Dahlgren, twisting her own bow around. Lieut. Wm. G. Miller was in charge of the Dahlgren and Lieut. Ford Brown of the Craven.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that the receipts from all sources during September, 1900, amounted to $23,453,814, a decrease, as compared with September, 1899, of $1,067,071.

The receipts from the several sources of revenue are given, as follows: Spirits $8,704,029, decrease $316,517; tobacco $4,568,235, decrease $425,492; fermented liquors $6,821,520, increase $200,061; oleomargarine $187,581, decrease $20,500. HELP FOR WOMEN

WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED.

"I do not feel very well. I am so tired all the time. I do not know what is the matter with me." You hear these words every day; as often as you meet your friends just so often are these words repeated. More than likely you speak the same significant words yourself, and no doubt you do feel far from well most of the time. Mrs. Ella Rice, of Chelsea, Wis., whose portrait we publish, writes that she suffered for two years with bearing-down pains, headache, backache, and had all kinds of miserable feelings, all of which was caused by falling and inflammation of the womb, and after doctoring with physicians and numerous medicines she was entirely cured by

Mrs. ELLA RICE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are troubled with pains, fainting spells, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere, headache, backache, and always tired, please remember that there is an absolute remedy which will relieve you of your suffering as it did Mrs. Rice. Proof is monumental that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest medicine for suffering women. No other medicine has made the cures that it has, and no other woman has helped so many women by direct advice as has Mrs. Pinkham; her experience is greater than that of any living person. If you are sick, write and get her advice; her address is Lynn, Mass.

NO CHANGE OF CARS MEMPHIS TO TEXAS

One of the great advantages of going to Texas via the Cotton Belt is, that you avoid the annoyances and discomforts of changing cars, necessary on other routes. The Cotton Belt trains are the only ones that run through from Memphis to Texas without change.

These trains carry Pullman Sleepers at night, Parlor Cafe Cars during the day, and Through Coaches and Free Reclining Chair Cars both day and night. The service compares favorably with that of any road in the country. Write and tell us where you are going, and when you will leave, and we will tell you what your ticket will cost and what train to take to make the best time and connections. We will also send you an interesting little booklet, "A Trip to Texas."

NEGOTIATIONS ARE ON.

Chinese Minister at London Says They Have Actually Begun.

French Charge d'Affaires, M. Thibaut, Called at the State Department and Had a Conference With Secretary Hay.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The cable dispatch from St. Petersburg, indicating that Russia's attitude in China will be independent of the concert of the powers, caused no surprise among officials here. It was noted when the aggressive military movement was begun by Germany, and the expedition against Pao Ting Fu started, that Russia was among the powers which did not join the movement. The dispatch from St. Petersburg is looked upon as merely another step nearer to that when Russia withheld support from the Pao Ting Fu expedition and other aggressive military moves. Moreover, it is regarded as quite in consonance with the pacific tendencies of this government, which have been directed all along to securing a settlement by diplomatic means rather than by the sword.

London, Oct. 18.—The Chinese minister here, Sir Chi Chen Lo Feng Luh, asserts that peace negotiations have actually begun at Peking between the Chinese plenipotentiary and the representatives of the powers, in the Tsung Li Yamen buildings, which, he adds, have been given over to the Chinese for that purpose.

Washington, Oct. 18.—If any peace negotiations have begun in Peking, as asserted by the Chinese minister at London, they are simply of a very preliminary character, confined probably to the examination of the credentials of the officials appointed by the emperor to represent the imperial government. Neither the Chinese minister here nor the state department has any information in regard to the beginning of negotiations. Earl Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching, two of the representatives of the imperial government, are in Peking.

Washington, Oct. 18.—It is a very unusual thing for a minister to communicate direct with the president. Only the accredited representative of a foreign power having the rank of an ambassador, according to diplomatic usage, can hold a personal audience with the president for the transaction of diplomatic business, but the unusual character of the message which Minister Wu had to convey warranted the departure from ordinary diplomatic custom. After delivering a message from the emperor of China, for which the president expressed his grateful acknowledgment, Minister Wu and the president talked for some time about the situation in China.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The French charge d'affaires, M. Thibaut, called at the state department Wednesday and had a conference with Secretary Hay. It is understood that he presented a memorandum proposing that the peace negotiations with China begin immediately, in accordance with the favorable action of the powers on the recent note of the French government. M. Thibaut also made known the satisfactory character of the answers received from the several governments, and pointed out the desirability of having action taken at once to carry out the several points on which the powers have been brought into agreement.

Hong-Kong, Oct. 18.—Advice from Canton say it is reported there that Sun Yat Sen, the reformer, captured Hui Chow last Monday. The Cantonese assert that, if Hui Chow, which resisted the insurgents in the Tai Ping rebellion, falls thus, the rebels will be able to take Canton within a week.

Adm. Ho, with the bulk of his forces, left Sam Chun Wednesday morning in pursuit of the rebels, leaving 250 troops to protect Sam Chun and sending 200 to garrison the mandarin station at Nao Tau, on the western arm of Deep bay.

The United States gunboat Marietta from Swatow arrived at Hong-Kong, coaled and proceeded for Canton.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—M. De Giers and the Russian legation, according to a dispatch from Tien-Tsin to the Kolnische Zeitung, have been ordered to return to Peking within a few days.

Peking, Oct. 16, via Tien-Tsin, Oct. 17, via Shanghai, Oct. 18.—Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang have addressed a joint meeting of the foreign envoys, fixing Saturday next for the first meeting to discuss the conditions of peace.

Strange Accident.

Liverpool, Oct. 15.—While the crew of the White Star liner Oceanic, Capt. Cameron, which arrived here from New York last Wednesday, were lowering anchor Sunday, the chain broke tearing off the left leg of one of the carpenters and fracturing the right. He died soon afterwards. Another man had his left leg fractured.

Prof. Godfrey Shot and Killed.

Columbia, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Prof. J. G. Godfrey, a prominent citizen of this county, was shot and instantly killed Wednesday by John Thomas, another well-known citizen. A business disagreement was the cause of the tragedy.

Flew a Yellow Flag.

Calcutta, Oct. 18.—The English freighter or Dolphin arrived here Wednesday from London flying a yellow flag. As a result of this all vessels coming from London will be disinfected before docking.

HON. WILLIAM L. WILSON.

The Well-Known Democratic Statesman Died Suddenly at His Home in Lexington, Va.

Lexington, Va., Oct. 18.—Ex-Postmaster General Wm. L. Wilson died suddenly Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Hon. William Lyne Wilson was president of the Washington and Lee university, a position to which he was selected immediately after his retirement from the office of postmaster general. He was born in Jefferson county, Virginia, May 3, 1843. He was educationally thoroughly prepared, graduating from three colleges.

He entered the confederate army at the outbreak of the civil war. He attended the democratic convention in Cincinnati in 1880 as a delegate and was an elector-at-large on the Hancock ticket the same year. He resigned the presidency of the West Virginia university to accept the democratic nomination for representative in the 48th congress.

He served in that and each successive congress until the 54th, when he was defeated. He was chairman of the ways and means committee and carried through the house the measure repealing the purchasing clause of the Sherman law and the tariff bill that bore his name. He was president of the democratic convention in Chicago in 1892. He had frequently been mentioned as a candidate for the senate of the United States, and had been urged to become a candidate for speaker of the house during his membership in congress. In 1895 he was made postmaster general by President Cleveland.

HON. JOHN SHERMAN.

The Aged Statesman Is Critically Ill—General Breakdown a Question of a Few Days.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Former Cabinet Officer and Senator John Sherman is dangerously ill at his residence on K street in this city. The attack has taken the form of a general collapse, in part due to the general debility incident to old age and to the effects of the serious illness which he suffered while on a trip to the West Indies two years ago. He never had fully recovered from that illness.

Mrs. Sherman's death at the old homestead at Mansfield, O., where the family was staying during the summer, also had its effect upon the venerable statesman who deeply mourned her loss. Mr. Sherman returned to Washington several weeks ago from Mansfield and since then has been living in the family residence here.

He was then in feeble health but was able to take daily drives about the city. For the past week, however, he has been gradually growing weaker and Tuesday and Wednesday his condition grew worse and relatives in various parts of the country were notified of the change. Some of them are expected to come to the city. There is said to be no very immediate danger of death and it is possible he may yet rally, if no further unfavorable symptoms occur. The ex-secretary is in his 78th year and has been a hard worker all his life.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Man's Body, Decapitated and Beheaded of the Limbs, in a Gunny Sack, Found in a Pond.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 18.—That great "trunk tragedy," as it was known throughout all New England back in 1872, when the mutilated body of Jennie Clark was found wedged into a trunk which had been picked up in the Saugus river, was in some respects no more mysterious than the murder which was revealed Wednesday by the finding of a man's body, decapitated and denuded of the limbs, in a gunny sack, in Glenmere pond.

The police Wednesday night are inclined to the belief that George E. Bailey has been murdered, and have taken under arrest John C. Best, 32 years of age, a farm hand, employed on the estate of which the supposed victim of the murder was caretaker. The police, in searching the Breakhart hill farm houses, where the men live, found in the barn cellar an ax which bore blood stains, but it is not certain they are of human blood, similar stains on a window sill and on a piece of cardboard in a room of the house. Bailey disappeared on October 8.

Trains Collide.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—A south-bound passenger train on the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad collided north of Peoria with a freight train, and Thomas Wiley, of Peoria, express messenger, was probably fatally injured. Capt. W. M. Weaver, of Peoria; Conductor T. F. Covington and Postal Clerk Barker, both of Peoria, were badly injured. The engineer and fireman of the passenger train saved their lives by jumping.

Quarantine Raised.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 18.—Gov. Stanley issued a proclamation Wednesday raising the quarantine which was established March 1, 1900, to prohibit the shipments of uninspected cattle to Kansas from the eastern and middle states.

Sailed for New York.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador at Washington, and his niece, Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer, and Miss Fanchon Thompson, the opera singer, sailed Wednesday for New York from Cherbourg.

THE YOUTSEY TRIAL.

Defendant is Still Very Ill and Lies Prostrate.

The Defense Closes Its Case, and It Will Soon Be in the Hands of the Jury—Jim Howard Takes the Stand.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 16.—The Youtsey trial was resumed Monday although Youtsey was reported in the same condition as last week. His room door was opened and his bed pulled up in plain view and hearing of the jury, and while the witnesses were being examined Youtsey could be heard calling his wife's name in a hollow, moaning voice and could be seen tossing on his bed. Of course the feature of the day was the testimony of Arthur Goebel, the brother of the murdered man. He told of going to the jail the day Youtsey was arrested and that Youtsey confessed to giving the cartridges to Jim Howard, but would not tell who fired the shot.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 17.—If Henry Youtsey heard a word uttered in his trial Tuesday, he gave not the slightest indication of it by any movement of the hands, head, eyes or lips. So far as any one in the courtroom could tell, he never uttered a word all day.

He was the unconscious actor in another realistic scene Tuesday afternoon when he was brought into the courtroom proper, lying on his bed. His eyes and mouth were tightly closed and he looked every whit a dead man, while Col. Nelson in a loud voice asked him how old he was and where he lived.

Mrs. Mattie Stamper, sister of Wharton Golden, said she heard him say he was to get $5,000 for his testimony, and that he made a confession in order to save his neck and Gov. Taylor's. C. O. Reynolds and D. R. Waleut, of Frankfort, swore that Culton told them that he had a contract with the commonwealth to secure immunity. Porter Thompson, sr., and Porter Thompson, jr., said they passed through the hall of the executive building a few minutes before the shooting, but saw no men in the hall. John W. Davis, one of those indicted with Culton, corroborated the Thompsons.

James Chipley, of Scott county, said Culton told him that Wharton Golden had caused all of them to get into trouble because Golden wanted a part of the $100,000.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 18.—Judge Cantrill convened court promptly at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Youtsey's condition, despite Tuesday's experiences, is better. A consultation of physicians was held Wednesday morning, after which Dr. Knox said:

"Youtsey is better this morning. He slept well Tuesday night and made no demonstration whatever. Stories of the prisoner suffering from lock-jaw are false. He took nourishment Wednesday morning, and his general condition is much improved."

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 18.—Youtsey's condition Wednesday night was much worse. He had another paroxysm, and is unable to take nourishment except hyperdermically.

In the trial Wednesday Prof. J. J. Rucker, teacher and civil engineer, of Georgetown, testified as to his measurements from the window of Powers' office to the hackberry tree, and said if the bullet fell 11-16 inches in passing through Goebel's body, estimating the distance at one foot, that the bullet must have started from a point nine feet above the window sill in Powers' office, but that if the shot was fired from the second-story window, the bullet would have passed many feet over Goebel's head, if it had fallen 11-16 inches to the foot.

James Howard testified that he was the same Howard who was recently tried and convicted for the murder of William Goebel; that he never saw Youtsey in his life to know him; never had any talk at any time with Youtsey, nor did he accompany Youtsey to any place or room anywhere at any time; that he was not in Caleb Powers' office on the morning of January 30, or in any other room in that building on that morning. On cross-examination he said he had been convicted of murdering George Baker in Clay county; had secured a new trial, and went to Frankfort on January 29 to secure a pardon from Taylor; that he was in the Board of Trade hotel when Goebel was shot.

The defense in the Youtsey trial closed its case late Wednesday afternoon, and the commonwealth began its rebuttal testimony, which will likely be concluded Thursday.

The feature of the day was the testimony of Col. Nelson, one of Youtsey's attorneys, who denied that he had told Arthur Goebel and Cal Campbell that "Youtsey knew enough to hang Gov. Taylor," but admitted that he did say his client (Youtsey) knew "something that would be very beneficial to the commonwealth in its prosecution of Taylor."

We are authorized to announce CHAS. PEDDICORD as a candidate for the office of Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. If elected, my deputy will be W. G. McClintock.

Woodson's Predictions.

National Democratic Committeeman Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, just after a conference with Chairman Jones, says: "There is no doubt about Bryan carrying Kentucky. The Republicans have not the slightest hope of winning, although they pretend to have. Their hopelessness is best shown by the fact that they are trading off votes on the electoral college for Governor. All their effort is on carrying the State for Yerkes. I believe Yerkes will run a little ahead of McKinley, but it will not amount to more than 5,000 votes at most. Bryan will carry the State by at least 15,000. So Yerkes has no chance to win out. In some sections Beckham will run even stronger than Bryan. Take my home, Owensboro, for instance. Gov. Beckham will soon marry a very pretty Owensboro girl, and he town is going to vote practically so, for the girl. There are hundreds of McKinley-Beckham votes there."

From Ocean to Ocean.

From ocean to ocean, and from great lakes to gulf, in every city, town and village of the country Democratic meetings will be held October 27, and will be addressed by the ablest speakers that the scope of this gigantic plan will permit.

This is the scheme announced by the Democratic National Committee, which has already set in motion necessary for the consummation of such a project.

In the consummation of this plan the tens of thousands of clubs affiliated with or members of the National Association of Democratic Clubs will be asked to lend their assistance.

Barbecue In Scott.

An old-fashioned Democratic barbecue will be given in the woods of Thomas T. Hedger, near Roger's Gap, Scott county, Thursday, October 25, to which everybody is cordially invited. The following distinguished speakers are expected to be present: John W. Keller, of New York City, Gov. J. W. C. Beckham, Hon. South Trimble, Hon. W. B. Moody and Judge James D. Black. The committee is making great preparations and a large crowd is expected.

David B. Hill's Prediction.

"I think the indications are most favorable. I believe that New York and Indiana will be found side by side in the Democratic column. In New York all Democrats—gold Democrats, silver Democrats and whatever else you wish to call them, are working harmoniously to carry the State. I consider the State safe for the Democratic ticket."

Dan Jordan, Clerk.

The Alaska Pirate

By Charles E. Brimblecom.

ATE in the summer of 1897 I arrived in San Francisco seeking my fortune. For many days I vainly asked for employment as a salesman, bookkeeper or bank clerk, for I felt competent for almost anything, having just graduated from the high school. The small sum of money I possessed began to shrink alarmingly, and my gorgeous dreams to wear a sickly and faded hue. One day while walking one of the principal streets I saw in gilt letters on the upper windows of a large building the words: "Detective Agency." A brilliant thought came to me, putting to flight my temporary discouragement.

I climbed two flights of stairs and arrived at a glass door, on which was inscribed: "Chief's office. Walk in." I entered. A short man with a gray mustache stood beside a large office desk. He looked at me inquiringly.

"I wish to see the chief," I said.

"What do you want to see him for?" he asked, with a perceptible Irish accent.

"I would like to get employment as a detective," I replied.

"I'm the chief," he said. "But you're almost too young for the business, my boy. It takes experience, and plenty of sand, and often a handy knowledge of gun fighting to be a detective."

"I wish you'd try me, sir," I said, courageously. "I'm young, but I can learn."

"True enough," he assented. "Well, I don't mind giving you a little trial. Are you willing to take your life in your hand, my boy?"

"Yes, sir," I answered, seriously, trying to avoid turning pale.

"Very well," he said, approvingly. "Now, of course, you've heard all about the Klondike gold mines. They're very rich, and the steamers that come from there are every one of them loaded with gold—millions and millions of dollars. Now, there are train robbers on the land, and there are pirates on the sea, and what finer haul for a pirate, do you think, than one of those Alaska steamers loaded down with gold dust and nuggets?"

"I suspect that there's a bloody band of pirates fitting out an expedition right here in San Francisco for the purpose of capturing some of those steamers. I want you to go out and discover them if you can. Find out where their vessel is and how big a crew she carries, and all about it. One false move, and likely as not you'll be found floating in the bay to-morrow. Good-by, and good luck to you."

I walked along the wharves very much on the alert. I examined two vessels that were loading for the north, but everything about them seemed honest and commonplace. I continued my patrol, and at last, at a small, remote wharf, I found a steam schooner bound for Alaska. Her name was the Gaddy, and I learned that she was to sail that very afternoon.

Something about the craft, I do not know why, aroused my suspicions. The sailors were as busy as ants loading provisions and stores. I approached and tried to engage one of them in conversation, but he repulsed me in a rude and surly manner. A large new deckhouse had been built on the schooner, evidently to accommodate quite a number of men.

Even at that retired place there were a few idlers gazing and gossiping. I joined them, and sat down on an overturned boat, determined to watch everything that occurred. The first confirmation to my suspicions came from two roughly dressed men who paused near me.

"They say the Gaddy is going to Copper river," said one, with a kind of sneer. "They can tell that to the marines."

"Now!" replied his companion. "She craves too much water. She couldn't git within 20 miles of the mouth."

In an hour or two some heavy cases were brought down and carefully hoisted on board. They were marked "Mining Machinery," but from their appearance I suspected that they contained cannon.

Among the passengers I saw a boy about my own age. He wore a fur cap and a heavy woolen coat of Arctic cut. He carried a rifle on his shoulder, and a big revolver and sheathknife in his belt. A large shaggy black dog kept at his heels.

Several times one of the officers had come on the wharf and looked up toward the city with an air of impatience. I resolved to wait until I discovered what this person or thing was.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock a heavy truck came rolling ponderously down the wharf. It was loaded with large barrels, about 30 of them. I heard sharp, suppressed orders on the Gaddy, and instantly the sailors swarmed out on the wharf and began to unload the barrels and roll them on board with every appearance of apprehensive haste, urged on by the profane mate. In my eagerness I walked boldly among them.

"What is in those barrels?" I asked a perspiring sailor.

"Gunpowder, sonny," he growled, as he hurried away.

But the mate's bloodshot eyes had spied me. He caught me by the shoulder and sent me staggering backward.

"You git out of here!" he snarled.

I deemed it prudent to retire, especially as I had discovered what the barrels contained. What would a mere peaceable passenger vessel do with 30 barrels of gunpowder? I set out at full speed for the detective agency.

When I entered the chief's office another man was seated at the desk—a large, dignified gentleman, with gray side-whiskers.

"I wish to see the chief," I said, breathlessly.

"I am the chief," he replied. "What do you wish?"

"It was another man I saw this morning," I said. "He told me he was the chief, and gave me some detective work to do."

Although extremely puzzled, I hastened to explain the task that had been given me and the discoveries I had made.

"This is very strange," said the chief, equally puzzled. "I have heard nothing of any such plot as you describe, and I feel sure that none of my assistants would dare to usurp my authority in that manner, and especially to place such an important matter as this purports to be in the hands of an inexperienced hands."

"But there is no time to lose, sir," I said, boldly. "The Gaddy may sail at any time now that they have their powder on board."

He stepped to the telephone and spoke.

"Is that Capt. Marden? Has the steam schooner Gaddy sailed? Just left the wharf? Well, I have reason to believe that all is not right on board. Signal the revenue cutter to stop her and send a boat on board. I will come down at once. Good-by."

"Now come with me," said the chief. "We'll go on board the Gaddy and see what is wrong there. Afterward I must solve the mystery of the man who sent you on that errand."

But before we quitted the office he telephoned to someone asking if "Robert had come home yet." And I thought he looked very much worried at the answer.

We drove rapidly to the water front. The chief roused the boatman at the boat landing, and in a few minutes we were tossing on the choppy bay in search of the Gaddy. We soon found her in the stream with her engines stopped, and there was some confusion and loud talking.

We climbed on board, where we found an officer and a boat's crew from the revenue cutter, surrounded by a crowd of the passengers and crew. The chief, in an undertone, soon explained to the lieutenant the suspicious circumstances in regard to the vessel.

"Captain," said the lieutenant, turning suddenly to the master of the Gaddy, "let us take a look at those 30 barrels."

The captain was very reluctant, but he had to accompany the lieutenant below, where it was soon discovered that the 30 barrels contained whisky instead of gunpowder.

It is against the federal law to take intoxicating liquors into Alaska, and as the Gaddy was bound for that territory it was evident that an infraction of the law was intended. So the 30 barrels were hoisted out into boats and taken ashore, much to the disgust of the owners, who had counted on realizing a huge profit. As there proved to be nothing to support a suspicion of piracy, the Gaddy was permitted to go on her way.

But just as we were about to leave the schooner the big black dog that I had seen following the young fellow sprang up from below and leaped upon the chief with great joy.

"Curio!" cried the chief, in a tone of amazement. "How did this dog come on board?" he demanded.

"He came with a young fellow—one of the passengers," replied the captain.

"Where is he? Bring him here at once," said the chief, sternly.

The young passenger had disappeared, but in a few minutes he was brought up from below, much against his will, and taken before the chief.

"Why, Robert!" said the chief. It was all he said, but the tone was full of grief and reproach.

It seemed that Robert was a runaway. His baggage and numerous weapons were hoisted out, and he and Carlo returned with us in the boat.

We all went back to the chief's office. As we entered I saw there the man who had employed me that morning.

"There, sir! There is the man—the other chief."

It seemed to be the chief's fate to be astonished that night.

"What! Kenny!" he exclaimed. "Did you call yourself the chief and employ this boy this morning?" he asked, severely.

"Sure, 'twas only a joke, sir," replied Kenny. "Ain't I the chief of the janitors?"

"You'll not remain chief of the janitors very long if this happens again," returned the chief, sharply.

Kenny skulked out, glad to escape so easily. Then the chief and his son retired to an inner office, where I suppose there was a serious conversation.

After some time the chief came out and sat down at his desk.

"My boy," he said, kindly, "you have done a great deal of good to-day. You have enabled me to rescue my only son from a dangerous expedition for which he was ill prepared. And you have prevented from entering Alaska 30 barrels of whisky, which, dealt out to the Indians of that region, would have done far more damage than 30 barrels of gunpowder. I shall make you a suitable reward."

But at that moment the door opened and a deep voice said: "I wish to see the chief."

I rose, with my heart in my mouth, and looked in my father's worn and anxious face. He had come from our home in a distant city to that detective agency to enlist aid in searching for his truant son, for I confess it with shame—I, too, was a runaway.—Boston Globe.

CONNOISSEUR IN SEEDS.

He Planted Some Bulbs That Turned Out to Be Bearing Bulbs for a Bicycle.

"I have a good joke on myself," said the business man whose hobby is agriculture, says the Detroit Free Press. "My mind has always had a particular preference for seeds and roots, and I never miss an opportunity to indulge this fancy. Some time ago, in looking through an old tool box, I came across several peculiar-looking seeds that at once aroused my interest. They were a little different from anything that I had discovered during my floricultural and agricultural experience, and I decided to plant them and see what the product would be. Well, I did so, and for weeks I waited to see the strange fruit, flower or vegetable plant make an appearance, carefully nurturing the seeds, and giving my pet bulbs the closest attention.

"Discouraged at length at their failure to part the soil and spring into life, I dug them up, and what do you suppose was the discovery that I made? Why, that my interesting and peculiar bulbs were nothing more nor less than those little bicycle bulbs that are an important part of the steel wheel's mechanism. They had been laid away in the tool box, and their size and rusted appearance made them resemble seeds. My wife and some of my intimate friends seem to think there is no excuse for such a ludicrous thing to happen to a man that has made a study of plants and bulbs, and they are never doing chaffing me and asking me when I expect to gather my crop of bicycles."

CANCER IS NOT INCURABLE

Time was when Cancer was considered as incurable as leprosy. Physicians and friends could give little relief or encouragement to one afflicted with this terrible disease. Even now doctors know of no remedy for this fearful malady; while admitting it to be a blood disease, they still insist that there is no hope outside of a surgical operation, and advise you to have the Cancer cut out, but at the same time cannot assure you that it will not return. You may cut or draw out the sore, but another will come in its place, for the disease is in the blood—is deep-seated and destructive, and beyond the reach of the surgeon's knife or caustic, flesh-destroying plasters. The blood must be purified and strengthened, the system relieved of all poisonous, effete matter before the Cancer sore will heal.

S. S. S. is the only medicine that can overcome this powerful and contaminating poison and force it out of the blood. It builds up and invigorates the old, and supplies new, rich, life-giving blood. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy; no mineral can be found in it; the roots and herbs from which it is made contain powerful purifying properties that act directly upon the blood system and make a safe and permanent cure of Cancer. It has cured thousands, why not you?

Cancer is not always inherited; your family may be free from any taint, yet your blood may become so polluted that a severe and stubborn form of the disease may develop from a sore or ulcer on your tongue or other part of your body; a slight bruise or hurt, a little pimple on the eyelid, lip or nose, a small lump on the jaw or breast, a harmless looking wart or mole, and other causes so insignificant as to attract at once; it will cleanse your blood and prevent the formation of cancerous cells.

Mrs. R. Shire, La Plata, Mo., writes: "A small pimple came on my jaw about one inch below the ear on the left side of my face. At first it gave me no trouble, but I did not think it was anything serious until the jaw began to swell and became much inflamed. At the same time the sore began to spread and eat into the flesh, and gave me intense pain. I tried everything I could hear of, but nothing did me any good. I then began the use of S. S. S., and after taking several bottles the Cancer healed, and there was no sign of the disease. This was two years ago, and I am still enjoying perfect health."

Send for our special book on Cancer; it contains much information that will interest you, it is free.

Write our physicians about your case, and for any advice or information wanted; they have made a life study of Cancer and all blood diseases. We make no charge whatever for this.
